Meeting called to order at 6:30pm.

He clarified that his housing plan was different from one he was discussing with the Mayor's office, which focused on housing the already homeless population, and answered questions about his proposal.

Jesse Cornett spoke about the LNA possibly supporting one or more requests for a PDC livability grant. After some discussion it was decided to bring the issue to the LNA general meeting, on September 23.

Cornett shared information about a mistake on the part of FEMA that led people to believe they would no longer need flood insurance, and said that he was working with Nick Christensen on the issue.

Ray Hites shared information about the upcoming EPNO newsletter, including an article about the the Lents story yard on the front page.

Hites made a motion to approve the minutes submitted from the 8/12/2014 LNA board meeting, with a friendly amendment, and the motion passed.

Theresa Swett announced the Lent Elementary Open House on 9/17.

Joan Chakwin shared information about the Lent Playground Committee and Chinook Book fundraiser.

Meeting adjourned 7:37pm
